About her Heritage! (Mobile, AL & Pensacola, FL)

Cat Rhodes has deep roots in the Gospel & Blues Music of the South. Cat Rhodes with her band “Cat Rhodes and the Truth” are noted on a Mississippi Blues Marker located in Pensacola, FL in “the Belmont-DeVilliers neighborhood, an African-American business and entertainment district.”

About her Voice!

A review of her album Knee Deep In The Blues by Peter "Blewzzman" Lauro © March 2016 " Remember Denise LaSalle's attitude as she belted out lines like "your husband's cheating on us" and "you can have my husband but don't mess with my man"? Remember the fierce energy Tina Turner generated as she wailed "rollin', rollin, rollin' on the river" during her wild renditions of "Proud Mary"? How about those famous growls you'd hear on just about every Koko Taylor song? Well if you can relate to all of those vocal characteristics, you now have a good idea of what you might expect to hear while listening to Cat Rhodes.”

About her recent CD!

Jim Thorn – WYAB 103.9 FM, Jackson, MS - That’s What’s Happening’s Blues and Arts Hour
A lot of energy, incredible musical talent, and “You gotta hear it” blues! It’s all there on Blues Sitting on My Doorstep! The creativity of Bryan Morris and Cat Rhodes is impressive! Cat is like a vocal gymnast! Amazing! And you can’t help but tapping your foot or bobbing your head along with the precise synchronization of bass and drums. you can FEEL it! Plus, the production and mix is 2nd to none! Highly recommended.”

What Fans Say!

“I have seen Cat Rhodes & the Truth perform many times. I am an avid consumer of live music and Cat and her band are THE quintessential professionals!
Cat is a force of nature! She entertains the crowd, keeps them engaged, follows the venue schedule and the crowd STAYS until the end of each set to hear every drop of music!! Her voice capabilities continue to grow and astound me, and she slays every song!! She will leave you wanting more!” By Cathy E. Griffin
